SILENT PRAYER

Lord of life, we gather to give you glory and to receive your goodness into our lives.

Light us with the fire of your Spirit, so we may shine as lights of prophetic truth. Amen.

CALL TO WORSHIP

MARY OZEL

L: Blessing and glory and wisdom and thanksgiving and honor and power and might be to our God forever and ever!

P: Amen!

L: In the days to come, the Lamb at the center of the throne will be our shepherd and will guide us to springs of the water of life, and God will wipe away every tear from our eyes.

P: Amen and amen.

PRAYER OF PRAISE AND ADORATION (UNISON) REV. DR. CARSON O. MOUSER

O Lord of all creation, we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses that we lay aside every weight and burden, so we may run with perseverance the race you set before us. May we serve you with gladness for the sake of Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

CALL TO CONFESSION

MARY OZEL

God’s love for us is so amazing, embracing us and empowering us to be honest about our lives and our need of God’s grace. Pray with me.

PRAYER of CONFESSION (UNISON)

MARY OZEL

Blessed are the poor in Spirit, Jesus said, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are the meek and those who mourn, the merciful, and those who hunger and thirst for righteousness. Blessed are the peacemakers, the pure in heart, and those who are persecuted for Christ's sake. O Lord, we who long for your blessing confess that these words convict and confound us. We are your people, but we seldom seek you. We are your children, but we barely resemble you. We hope half-heartedly for your kingdom to come. Merciful God, we want to stand before you without shame. Unite us with the saints who look to you and are radiant with your blessing.

ASSURANCE of PARDON

REV. DR. CARSON O. MOUSER

One: Water splashing into the baptismal font tells the gospel truth.

All: Anyone who is in Christ is a new person, the past is finished, it is gone, everything has become fresh and new. Thanks be to God.

NEW TESTAMENT LESSON

Revelation of John 7: 9-17

MARY OZEL

ANTHEM

Sine Nomine

RALPH VAUGHN WILLIAMS

1. For all the saints, who
from their labors rest,
who thee by faith before the
world confessed, thy name, O Jesus, be forever blest.
Alleluia, Alleluia!

3. O may thy soldiers, faithful, true, and bold, fight as the saints who
nobly fought of old,
and win with them the
victor's crown of gold.
Alleluia, Alleluia!

5. And when the strife is fierce, the warfare long,
steals on the ear the distant
triumph song,
and hearts are brave again,
and arms are strong.
Alleluia, Alleluia!

2. Thou wast their rock,
their fortress, and their might;
thou Lord, their captain in
the well-fought fight;
thou in the darkness drear,
their one true light.
Alleluia, Alleluia!

4. O blest communion,
fellowship divine!
We feebly struggle, they in
glory shine;
yet all are one in thee, for all
are thine.
Alleluia, Alleluia!

6. From earth's wide
bounds, from ocean's
farthest coast,
through gates of pearl
streams in the countless host,
singing to Father, Son, and Holy Ghost:
Alleluia, Alleluia!

Celebrating Eucharist

THE INVITATION to the TABLE

THE PRAYER of THANKSGIVING

- L: O living God, for your blessing in creation, for your image deep within us, for your life in all its fullness,
- P: We give you thanks.
- L: O Jesus, for your coming to earth, for your calling of us as your friends, for your sharing of our life and death,
- P: We give you thanks.
- L: O, Spirit of grace and truth, for revealing yourself in community, for healing us in our brokenness, for inspiring us with courage to share,
- P: We give you thanks.
- L: O Trinity of love, for the promise of a spreading tree giving shade and protection, for the vision of a body in which each part works for the health of the whole, for the invitation to a feast where sinners will be guests of honor,
- P: We give you thanks.
- L: And, with angels and archangels, with all the saints in heaven and on the earth, we proclaim your great and glorious name, forever praising you and singing,

Heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest. Hosanna in the highest.

- L: You are holy, O God of majesty, and blessed is Jesus Christ, your Son, our Savior. In Jesus, born of Mary, your Word became flesh and dwelt among us full of grace and truth. He lived as one of us, knowing joy and sorrow. He healed the sick, fed the hungry, opened blind eyes, broke bread with outcasts and sinners and proclaimed the good news of your kingdom to the poor and lonely. Dying on a cross, he gave himself for the life of the world. Rising from the grave, he is our risen Lord forever. Remembering all your mighty and merciful acts, we take this bread and this wine from the gifts you have given us, and celebrate with joy the redemption won for us in Jesus Christ.

We pray they may become for us your body, vibrant with your life, healing, renewing, making us whole. And as the bread and wine which we eat and drink are changed into us may we be changed again into you, bone of your bone, flesh of your flesh, loving, and caring in and for the world. By your Spirit make us one with Christ and one with all who share this meal. Amen.

BREAKING the BREAD, POURING the CUP

COMMUNION

THE PRAYER after COMMUNION

Gracious God, you have made us one with all your people in heaven and on earth. You have fed us with the bread of life and renewed us for our service. We give ourselves to you and ask that our daily living may be part of the life of your kingdom. May our love be your love reaching out into the life of the world; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Faithful Feasting

Faithful Feasting is the stewardship theme for this October and November and it is a reminder that eating is one of life's greatest gifts and joys. Whether it is offering hospitality, celebrating significant mileposts of life's journey, or gathering for a potluck supper with friends, food is not only a necessity of life, but it is a symbol of communion with life.

Since, how we eat lifts us beyond the table shared to the consciousness of the lives of the people and to the world from which food comes to us as pure gift, which is but a portion of the wondrous, mysterious gift that is life. It is a gift we can only receive and respond to with gratefulness given voice in our generosity to others and in sustaining this gift for our children, grandchildren and all the generations that follow us.

This is our third and final week for this simple journal containing scripture, poems, and quotes for you to use for a daily devotional and to jot down your reflections about each week's theme. We hope you'll enjoy this way of pondering stewardship and be open to sharing your reflections in the weeks to come.

A Week of Sustainability

Sunday, November 2, 2014

Eating with the fullest pleasure, a pleasure, that is, that does not depend on ignorance, is perhaps the profoundest enactment of our connection with the world. In this pleasure we experience and celebrate our dependence and our gratitude, for we are living from mystery, from creatures we did not make and powers we cannot comprehend.

Wendell Berry

Seek the well being of the city where I have sent you into exile and pray to the Lord on its behalf, for in its health and wholeness you will find your own health, wellbeing and peace.

Genesis 2:15

The Hebrew word “keep” is sometimes translated tend, take care of, guard and look after. The Hebrew word upon which these translations of “keep” are based is “shamar and shamar indicates a loving, caring, and sustaining type of keeping.

Calvin DeWitt, Creation’s Care and Keeping

Thursday, Nov. 6, 2014

May the earth continue to live; may the heavens above continue to live; may the rain continue to dampen the land; may the wet forests continue to grow; then the flowers shall bloom and we people shall live again. Amen.

Hawaiian Prayer

Friday, Nov. 7, 2014

"To see a world in a grain of sand
And a heaven in a wild flower, is to Hold infinity in the palm of your hand
And eternity in an hour."

William Blake

Saturday, Nov. 8, 2014

Christians don't need a new set of dietary and purity laws to follow. We need only to feast on grace, as we do when “we come to the hungry feast,” nourished by bread and cup blessed and given to all without price, regardless of merit. If “you are what you eat,” then what we are most profoundly is what we eat and drink at Jesus’ table of grace. More than corn or organic food or anything else we may eat, this meal sustains us for faithful life in this world as well as life in the world to come. So like that ladle of mom’s homemade gravy that spills over the whole plate, covering everything, let our food sharing always and everywhere be smothered by grace.
