If you are new to this community of faith, we rejoice in your presence with us. Remember, we're not strangers, but rather friends who journey together, following the Lord Jesus Christ. If you are a newcomer, we invite you to sign the pew pad.

CONFESSION

ALLISON CUBITT

God of grace and truth, in Jesus Christ you came among us as light shining in darkness. We confess that we have not welcomed the light, or trusted good news to be good. We have closed our eyes to glory in our midst, expecting little, and hoping for less. Forgive us and renew our hopes, so we may receive the fullness of grace, and live in the truth of Jesus the Christ.

ASSURANCE OF PARDON

REV. DR. CARSON O. MOUSER

One: Water splashing into the baptismal tells the good news of God's great love for us all.

All: Christ was born for us. Christ lived for us. Christ died for us. Christ reigns in power for us. Christ prays for us.

One: My brothers and sisters, you are forgiven and set free to walk into the future God is creating for you, a future of abundance and joy. Amen.

PRAYER OF DEDICATION (UNISON)

Generous God, this world and all that is in it are yours. You have guided us in the paths of plenty and taught us to be grateful. As we bring our offerings to you, we say thank you for the opportunity to let go of some of our abundance and take a leap of faith, trusting that there will always be enough to share your bounty with others. Amen

David Kinnaman, the author of You Lost Me, shares three things he learned from studying the next generation: “...(1) the church needs to reconsider how we make disciples; (2) we need to rediscover Christian calling and vocation; and (3) we need to reprioritize wisdom over information as we seek to know God.” We invite you to join our August book study where we will discuss the implications of the above for Summerville Presbyterian Church. We will have some book copies available for you in the Memorial Lounge library or you can order a copy (either new or used) from amazon.com.
