CALL TO CONFESSION

DOUG CAINE

God's love for us is so amazing, it embraces us and empowers us to be honest about our lives and our need of God's grace. Pray with me.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION (UNISON)

DOUG CAINE

Loving God, we know that we haven't always made you a priority in our lives. With Lent and the celebration of Christ's resurrection behind us, we fall into old patterns. We know we haven't always shown the world your love or lived by the example of your son, a true servant. We acknowledge those times before you right now and turn to you for help coming back to life and returning to your ways.

CELEBRATION OF THE EUCHARIST

Invitation

Through all the seasons and changes of our lives there is one that stands above all others: this Season of Easter, in which we celebrate with unbridled joy the presence of the risen and living Christ in our midst.

No matter where we have been, or where we find ourselves today, we are bold to gather in joy, knowing that our living is tied up with that of Christ, who lives forever.

With joy we gather at this sacred table to be sacred community: to be the people called by God into new and everlasting life.

Great Prayer of Thanksgiving

Loving God, we celebrate the joyous calling to share good news with all the world: that Christ's resurrection is for all people, that God's love is for all people, that this table and this feast are for all people.

We remember Jesus gathering with his closest friends yet knowing they would scatter, leaving him alone. Still, he gathered with them and shared this simple meal, taking bread and wine and infusing them with new life; taking ordinary things and making them extraordinary in their new use. And so we take the ordinary – bread and wine/juice – and make it extraordinary by offering it to you. We take this simple bread, and as it is broken we think of Jesus' words: "Take and eat; this is my body broken for you."

All: It is broken that we may live in fullness and wholeness.

We take this simple cup, and as it is lifted up we think of Jesus' words: "Take and drink; this is my blood, poured out for you and many for the forgiveness of sin."

All: It is poured out that we may know ourselves forgiven.

We know that in this meal we are gathered by a great community that has gone before us. We are bold to gather at this table with Thomas and Lydia, with Paul and Ananias, and all those men and women who dared to join with one another in those first days, and boldly remember the presence of the living Christ in their midst.

Bless us now in the sharing of this meal, that we may be enlivened to share your gifts with those who hunger and thirst for acceptance, for new life, for wholeness.

Breaking the Bread and Pouring the Cup

Communion of God's People with God

Prayer After Communion

Loving God, you have gathered us here out of love for you, and reminded us at this table that we are one people. Send us out, now, into a hurting world to share the good news that Christ is alive for all people. Amen.

DOXOLOGY – HYMN NO. 556

PRAYER OF DEDICATION (UNISON)

God, we give thanks to you! Your steadfast love endures forever and ever. We dedicate these offerings to the work of sharing your love with others. Like the early followers of Jesus who were small in number, but who grew and grew over time, we ask that you multiply these offerings. May they be used to further your kingdom. Amen.
