SILENT PRAYER (Garden of Gethsemane)

Dear Lord, as children of God, we have come to church today remembering that Jesus bowed down and prayed to you during his time of greatest sorrow. We have come to church to thank you for our gift of life, to strengthen our faith, and to pray. We enjoy singing songs to honor God and Jesus, to read the Bible, to take communion, and to hear the children's message. Amen.

PRELUDE:

CALL TO WORSHIP (from Creation) Maeve Caine

Leader: Come, let us worship the God of all creation.

People: Thank you, God, for creating us.

Leader: You are the God of our Earth and water.

People: Thank you, God, for all you've given us.

Leader: You are the God of all the animals, great and small.

People: Thank you, God, for the circle of life

Leader: and bringing us all together--young and old and in-between.

All: We are all God's creation!

CALL TO CONFESSION Abby Leavitt

Let us all come together to confess our sins before God and each other. Pray with me.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION (unison) Abby Leavitt

We are sorry for hitting our siblings, for scaring our cats, and for making messes. We know that we do not work as hard as we could. We are sorry for times when we are not good team players and for times when we are not listening to others. We often argue with our parents and family members. We are sorry when we disappoint You.

ASSURANCE OF PARDON (from Mary & Martha) Mark Leavitt

It is reassuring to know that our God is a forgiving God. He forgives us when we are too busy for Him. As Jesus reminds us in the story of Mary and Martha, it is important to take time to follow Jesus' teachings, to be mindful of God, to love Him and to talk to Him.

(Road to Emmaus)

Eric Leavitt

Like the story of Jesus meeting with the two men on the road to Emmaus, Jesus could present himself to us as a stranger on our life's journey. Gracious God, we offer these gifts from the Children's Mission and our congregation to use for the stranger whom we do not know, yet who is also loved by God.
