WELCOME. We are a compassionate Christian community fostering a personal connection with God for people of all ages and expressing God's love through worship, education, mission, music and fellowship.

We're glad to gather together as a community of faith today. No matter where you are on the journey of faith, you are welcome here to join in worship and service. If you are new to this community of faith, we rejoice in your presence with us. Remember, we're not strangers, but rather friends who journey together, following the Lord Jesus Christ. If you are a newcomer, we invite you to sign the pew pad.

MISS A WORSHIP SERVICE? Services are recorded every week. A CD-R is available upon request by contacting the church office at 342-4242.

Rev. Mouser can be reached by cell at 519-5280,

SILENT PRAYER (Journey to Bethlehem & the Cross)

Dear God, our children learned that journeys are used a lot in your stories. Mary and Joseph had to walk to Bethlehem for the census. The shepherds heard about baby Jesus from the angels and traveled to the manger. The three Wise Men traveled a couple weeks because they wanted to see the "son of God." Jesus traveled to Jerusalem to celebrate Passover and that became known as Palm Sunday for us. Jesus journeyed into the temple and threw out the moneychangers. Then he had to carry his cross to his death. After Easter, Jesus journeyed up to God. We, too, are on a journey--a lifelong journey of faith. Amen.

PRELUDE: "Bach's Invention No. 3 in D Major"

CALL TO WORSHIP

Henry Spencer

Leader: People of God, let's come together to enjoy God's presence.

People: We are here to stop thinking about our favorite t.v. show, our homework, and setting the table for dinner. We are here to focus on God and Jesus.

Leader: We will pray, sing, and listen to stories from the Bible.

People: We are ready to worship God.

CALL TO CONFESSION

Edward Caine

Let us all come together to confess our sins before God and each other. Please pray with me.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION (from Joseph) (unison) Edward Caine
From the story of Joseph, we learn that jealousy is bad. There are times when we are jealous of people who have more than us. Sometimes we are jealous of our brothers, sisters, and friends. We want what they have.

ASSURANCE OF PARDON (from Joseph) Barbie Smith

Joseph's brothers, because of their intense jealousy, left Joseph for dead in a pit. But Joseph survived and his future was an incredible blessing. In their time of need, Joseph's brothers needed food that Joseph could provide. Joseph forgave his brothers and fulfilled their need.

ASSURANCE OF PARDON (CONTINUED)

Like Joseph, God has a forgiving heart. Times when we have unkind thoughts, Jesus can understand, since he lived among us and knows what it is like to be human. God accepts us for who we are and loves us, even when we do naughty things.

PRAYER OF DEDICATION

Ed Caine

(unison) (from The Four Friends)

The Bible story of the four friends who carry their paralyzed friend to Jesus for healing teaches us that bringing our cares to Christ for the good of mankind is a good thing to do.

Today we are bringing our cares for people who are sick or injured. We care about those who need food, clothing and shelter. Use our gifts for all this and for the animals and their habitats, too. Amen.

BENEDICTION

Johnia Spencer

(from Breakfast on the Beach)

The miracle and glory of Easter comes to life in the Bible story of the "Breakfast on the Beach." After Jesus' resurrection, he visited his disciples along the shore of the Sea of Galilee. The disciples were confused and didn't know what to do now that Jesus was gone. So they did what they had always done--they went fishing all night - and caught nothing. Then Jesus appeared to them, told them to cast their nets to the other side of their boat, and they caught hundreds of fish. Jesus prepared a breakfast for them and told them to go out and spread his message - "Be fishers of men." As we go out into the world today, know that Jesus walks among us. He could be anyone. Cast out your nets and miracles can happen with Jesus' help.
