We're glad to gather together as a community of faith today. No matter where you are on the journey of faith, you are welcome here to join in worship and service. If you are new to this community of faith, we rejoice in your presence with us. Remember, we're not strangers, but rather friends who journey together, following the Lord Jesus Christ. If you are a newcomer, we invite you to sign the pew pad.

CALL TO RECONCILIATION

BARBARA ORDWAY

The proof of God's amazing love is this: while we were sinners Christ died for us. Because we have faith in him, we dare to approach God with confidence. In humility and faith, let us confess our sin to God.

PRAYER OF RECONCILIATION (UNISON)

Lord, you touch our lives in loving and healing ways. We take your gifts and then turn away from your call to share them with others. Lord, you teach us about righteousness and show us the way. We give your teaching the attention we can, then choose our own way. Lord, you hear our calls in times of despair or hurt and reach out to comfort us. We take the comfort offered and then move on with little thought of you. Forgive us Lord! Help us grow in faith and in faithfulness. We pray to you in Jesus' name. Amen

ASSURANCE OF PARDON

REV. STEVEN BECKER

Through the cross of Christ, God has had mercy on us, pardons us, and sets us free. Know that we are forgiven and be at peace. God strengthens us in all goodness and keeps us in eternal life. Amen.

SENIOR CHOIR ANTHEM "The Way of Love"

MAGARET R. TUCKER

God in heaven, I make my prayer for all the people everywhere,
Who live in fear or pain or doubt; whose homes are gone, and hopes run out.

God in heaven, I make my prayer for all the children everywhere
Who live in terrible, warring places; who live with hunger and strange, sad faces.

God in heaven, I make my prayer for all good people everywhere
Who live in comfort, love and peace, and pray sincerely for strife cease;
But who do not always hear the call of those who live with nothing at all.

God in heaven, hear my prayer!
Help all the people everywhere everywhere
to come closer together in plenty and need,
And to make our world your home, indeed.

The Invitation to the Table

My friends, every family sits around a table to share news from the day, concerns about life, and stories they have heard. I invite you now to gather around this table with the great family of creation to share the day, and listen to God's story. It's a special table because it is big enough for all. It's a special table because it is made from the stuff of the earth: wood and ore, grain and grape, gifts from God. It's a special table because Jesus is here.

The Prayer of Thanksgiving

We give thanks, O God, that as the Bread of Life you take form in us. We thank you that even as each grain of flour draws its life from the soil, sun, and waters of creation, so also in the fibers of our being and in the drawing of each breath exist the entire cosmos and history of the world.

You have made us of the same dust as Eve and Adam, Sarah and Abraham. We breathe the same air as Jesus, Mary and Martha; Paul, Timothy, and Lydia. We thank you that by the experiences of life, our relationships with friends, families, neighbors, co-workers, and strangers, you have kneaded us into just the right shape and form and consistency that we might rise with you.

And we are amazed that even as this bread is broken and shared, so, also, in our vulnerability and brokenness does your presence become ever more apparent as we share intimately our burdens and sorrows, joys and delights, and find ourselves held tenderly in the loving hands around us. In the midst of this sharing, we are re-membered, put back together, made whole again. What greater joy, O God, what greater love than to be made whole in our beings and in this body of sisters and brothers, even as we pray the prayer of Jesus.

The Breaking of the Bread

The Communion of the People

THE PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

Eternal God, we thank you for this holy mystery in which you have given yourself to us. We have been fed by your grace. In the days ahead please keep us faithful to you and alert to the ways we can now share your grace and peace with others. We pray in the name of Jesus, the servant Christ. Amen.
